

Challenge 304: Smallest Circle

The curve with equation  $x = k(1 - y^2)$ , where  $k > 0$ , cuts the axes at points A, B and C.

Prove that the smallest possible area for the circle that passes through A, B and C is  $\pi$  square units.